

CONFIDENTIAL

Intelligence support requested!

scout intelligence hereby kindly requests help from Danish scouts in Cnut the Great Division for an confidential intelligence expedition into unknown territory to support the rebuilding of a scout movement in a territory where scout activity has been forbidden for many years. The expedition will require courage and skills of the best and bravest.

The expedition will be launched from the break of dawn on Friday, 3 June 2011 and the goals of the expedition must be accomplished before Sunday, 5 June 2011 at noon.

scout intelligence can offer up-to-date training in relevant intelligence and scouting practices that might be of help on this expedition for those scouts of Cnut the Great Division who have been bequeathed with a particular leadership responsibility for their fellow scouts.

This training will take place under the auspices of Sleipner on the following days during the spring of 2011:

1. Sunday, 27 March 2011, at 16h-19h, Polarstjernen, The art of fine cooking
2. Monday, 11 April 2011, at 18h30-21h, location tba, The art of orienteering
3. Monday, 25 April 2011, at 13h-17h, Ryds, The art of scout engineering

Scout intelligence will in due time provide further information about registration and participation in the intelligence expedition and the Sleipner training sessions.

Scout intelligence

28 February 2011